

HELD UP BY WRECKS

W. CHAPPELL, 326 S. BRAND, DESCRIBES VICISSITUDES OF TRIP TO KANSAS

W. Chappell, of Chappell's Dry Goods store, 326 S. Brand, recently returned from a trip through Kansas and part of Missouri. Among many interesting features of the journey were two freight wrecks, one of which blocked the journey eastward and another the journey westward. "I left Glendale," said Mr. Chappell, "Aug. 24, with the intention of visiting Kansas City. Traveling by the Southern Pacific and Rock Island railway I was brought through a considerable portion of the Mexican border country.

"At El Paso we did not have much time to stay; but I was there long enough to see that El Paso is now a modern town with skyscrapers and fine streets. I saw troops in camp and everything seemed warlike and active. At Douglas there was another United States camp and more soldiers. The same sights were visible at Columbus. There are still some traces of the Mexican raid on that unfortunate city in the shape of empty sites and bullet marks on some of the houses, but the place seems to have recovered its former activity and is ready to repel any further attempts at attack.

"After the train left Columbus it was held up for eighteen hours at Carrizozo by a freight wreck. The cars were loaded with coke and coal and the wrecking crew saw at once that it would take a very long time to clear the line. They therefore built a spur 1500 feet in length around the wrecked line and at the end of eighteen hours we were released. There was some talk of giving us a meal during that long wait but the provisions did not materialize.

"That wreck delayed us so that it was late when we got into Kansas city. The Grand Army of the Republic was holding its annual convention there at that time. The city was full of sightseers. I do not think I have seen so big a crowd of on-lookers at a Grand Army parade since I saw the big parade at Buffalo, N. Y., the year that President McKinley was assassinated. McKinley reviewed that parade, close to the spot where he died. In Kansas City there was not half the number of G. A. R. men there was in Buffalo. They have dwindled sadly since that time. The crowd was enormous. They spread out into the middle of the streets leaving barely room for the parade to march.

"While in Kansas City I also had the pleasure of hearing Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for president. Mr. Hughes spoke in the Convention hall. It is seated for 15,000 people but as the aisles were crowded and every available inch of space was taken up and people were standing wherever they could it is likely that there were 18,000 people in the hall. I was close to the front and was struck by the clear and logical sequence of Mr. Hughes speech. He made an excellent impression on his audience.

"Speeding along in the train from Kansas City to St. Louis I noticed that the country looked prosperous. The corn crop, however, I believe has been a failure. The wheat crop is enormous. I went to Holden, Mo., to visit my daughter, Mrs. H. B. Newland. Her husband is a dentist there and prospering. Thence I went to St. Louis and was much pleased with my visit to the big city. I then went on to Bunker Hill, the place where I was raised, although I was born in England. Bunker Hill is a very slow little place of 1200 people. The town is dead. The railway put in a cutoff and left it high and dry. There was also a bank failure which struck it a severe blow.

"I returned the way I came. Singularly to say on the way back our train was held up by a freight wreck, at Dresden, in Western Kansas. This delayed us a few hours and made us miss the connection at Colorado Springs. We waited there till midnight. Thence we came home. There was some talk of hard times throughout Kansas and Missouri; but the country looked rich and prosperous."

BARACAS TO BANQUET

The Baraca class of the First Methodist church will hold a banquet in the social hall of the church this evening. The Ladies' Aid society will prepare and serve the banquet. There will be a business meeting in connection at which officers for the coming year will be elected. F. J. Matthiesen is the president and Herbert Matthiesen the secretary of the organization.

I. O. G. T. CONVENTION

GOOD TEMPLARS HEAR ADDRESS FROM JOHN SOBIESKI, DESCENDANT OF A KING

After the great success of the first day of their convention the International Order of Good Templars, met again Wednesday morning in the I. O. O. F. hall for further business. There was a large attendance and the morning cars brought in additional delegates who had been unable to be present the first day. After the routine work of the day was finished, Colonel John Sobieski, who is a direct descendant of the famous John Sobieski, the great Polish king, who delivered Vienna from the Turks and saved Europe from Mohammedanism gave a stirring address on the work of the order.

Colonel Sobieski is a lecturer for the order. He has spoken in every state in the union and has organized 2190 lodges in the United States. He gave some interesting details of the work that has been and is being done and said that the Good Templars had established centers of temperance everywhere and that from these centers had emanated in great part the modern movement against liquor.

Five veterans of the G. A. R., then entered bearing a beautiful, new, American flag, which they presented to the lodge. As they marched round the lodge room they sang in good voice, "The Star Spangled Banner."

At the evening session degrees were conferred and various matters taken up under "Good of the Order." A most interesting address was given by Brother Kellogg, of Newcastle, Cal. Brother Kellogg has been a member of the Good Templars for forty-four years and has seen it grow to its present well organized condition from small beginnings. He told graphically some of his experiences during his long connection with the order.

An address on the work of the Good Templars was made by Mrs. E. M. North-Whitcomb. Brother Theodore D. Kanouse spoke eloquently of the benefits of the order and Carl May, probation officer of Los Angeles, made some appropriate remarks on temperance. The meeting then adjourned from labor to refreshment and enjoyed an excellent time with a good impromptu program.

SOLDIERS' CHRISTMAS TEA

A unique and delightful affair is to be given next Monday afternoon in the Guild hall of St. Mark's church, Glendale. Afternoon tea will be served from 3 till 6. All sorts of delicious home made cakes and English dainties for 15 cents. Each guest is invited to bring a present to be sent to the soldier boys at the front. Any gift is acceptable. California dried fruits, nuts, tobacco, pipes, cigars, handkerchiefs, chewing gum, candy, soap, etc., are suggested. Place your gifts in a sock or pair of socks, or make a package and put your name and address on the outside so that you may receive a letter of thanks from your soldier. If you can not bring a gift, money to buy will be most acceptable. Donations of cakes, plum puddings, candies and fruits are earnestly solicited. Please come, dear friends, and help us to send a bit of Christmas cheer to the brave lads at the front, from Glendale. A special invitation is extended to all the churches and clubs in Glendale. St. Mark's Episcopal church has donated us the use of the hall. What will you do for us? All the tradesmen in Glendale are invited to send merchandise. We have already received generous donations from the "White Store," "People's Store," Mr. Booth, Tropico Mercantile, Glendale Furniture store and many others. Only four more days till Christmas, the soldier's Christmas. Hurry up and fill that stocking. This is the first affair we have had in Glendale. Please help us to make it a red letter day, as well as a Red Cross day. Every body please come.

Yours in comradeship,
THE BRITISH RED CROSS SOCIETY OF GLENDALE.

NEW PHYSICIAN LOCATES HERE

Dr. L. A. Merritt late of Boston, Mass., is a newcomer to Glendale and is opening offices in the Bank of Glendale building at the corner of Glendale avenue and Broadway in the suite of office rooms formerly occupied by Drs. Arnold and Chase. Dr. Merritt comes to this city recommended as a professional man of many years experience. Dr. Merritt and family reside at 406 Third street.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair to night and Friday; generally warmer; westerly winds.

SERVANS OPERATING IN OWN TERRITORY

KING PETER'S TROOPS ARE NOW OPERATING ON THEIR OWN TERRITORY, WINNING BACK 120 SQUARE MILES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SALONIKI, Oct. 5.—The Servians who are advancing on the right wing of the Allies in Macedonia, are now rejoicing over the fact that they have won back 120 square miles of their own territory. After crossing the Tohera river the Servians inspired by the thought that their feet were on their native heath, attacked the Bulgarians with such vigor that they drove them back in disorder.

ALLIED FORCES ADVANCE IN MACEDONIA

SERBS, RUSSIANS, FRENCH AND BRITISH ARE NEARING IMPORTANT CENTER OF MONASTIR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Oct. 5.—The Allies have scored considerable successes in Macedonia. The Servians have defeated the Bulgarians at Nize mountain and are sweeping on Pisoderi. The Russians and French have driven closer to Monastir. The British forces on the Struma are steadily increasing the pressure that is to sweep the Bulgars back to Monastir, at which point it will be easy to handle them. The country through which the British are operating is very difficult and has been carefully fortified and entrenched by the Bulgars.

ROUMANIANS SUFFER BAD DEFEAT

INVASION OF BULGARIA FAILS FALLING BACK BEFORE GERMANS AND BULGARS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 5.—The Roumanian forces which crossed the Danube by means of a pontoon bridge, between Rustchuk and Tutukai, advancing as far as Rjahova, have been compelled to fall back before the combined attack of Germans and Bulgarians. Their defeat has been complete. It is stated that the Teuton-Bulgar forces have taken 15,000 prisoners. Meanwhile the main battle in the Dobrudja continues with the advantage on the side of the Russo-Roumanian armies.

BAD WEATHER HINDERS SOMME OPERATIONS

BRITISH AND FRENCH MAKE SMALL GAINS—ARTILLERY DUELS ORDER OF THE DAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Oct. 5.—On the Somme front the rains are soaking the ground and making it next to impossible to move the heavy artillery forward. This is hampering the operations of the Allies. The artillery engagements are steadily increasing in intensity. Near Morval the French captured nine cannon this morning. There has been intense fighting near Thiepval and Moquet between the British and the Germans.

MILK FAMINE RIOT IN NEW YORK

FAMISHED WOMEN AND CHILDREN ATTACK AND STONE WAGONS OF DISTRIBUTORS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Serious rioting marked the day's developments in the milk famine in this city. Huge crowds of women and children gathered in the streets. When the wagons of the distributors appeared at any point they were assailed with shouts and showers of stones and other missiles. Some of the drivers were slightly wounded. The supply of milk in the city was even shorter than that of yesterday. It was estimated that only about 20 per cent of the usual amount was delivered.

CHIHUAHUA CITY COMMUNICATIONS CUT

TELEGRAPH WIRES HAVE BEEN CUT AND TRAINS NOT ALLOWED TO LEAVE SCENE OF RECENT FIGHTING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

JUAREZ, Oct. 5.—All communication between Chihuahua City and this and other points has been cut. No word has been heard from the city for 48 hours. All passenger trains have been forbidden to leave the city and there has been no train out of Chihuahua since Sunday morning. It is generally believed that something of importance is happening. Rumor says that a revolution is being engineered against Carranza. There are many Villistas and other opponents of Carranza in that quarter.

HIGH PRICES IN ARGENTINE REPUBLIC

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 5.—Throughout the Argentine republic there is little expectation of relief from the present high price of flour. Prices began rising more than a year ago and have continued to climb periodically since. There is no surplus store in the country as all above the national needs goes to the United States or to Europe, being sold to the highest bidder.

AT GLENDALE HIGH

EIGHTY-SIX STUDENTS WIN HONOR PINS—TENNIS IS DRAWING CARD

There are those who go to school merely to be going to school. There are those who go to school to win athletic honors. There are those who go to school to gain knowledge.

To the first class no credit goes, although they usually know the best how to dance. Upon the second class much glory has always been bestowed. But now the third class has come into its own. The drudges got theirs yesterday, when Mr. Moyses presented the honor pins won during the year 1915-16.

Of the eighty-six students who won pins, all but a few were present to stand before the school with ches elevated and pulses leaping, as they were awarded for their hours of toil, their self denial of the movies, and their untiring perseverance beneath the flickering beams from the midnight oil.

Mr. Moyses elaborated in his own inimitable style upon the significance of scholastic excellence. He declared that those who excel in school will excel when they go out into the world. The large percentage of students winning honors, he pointed out is an indication of the high standing of Glendale High school.

The following students received pins for their records of last term:

SUCCESS IN BUSINESS

W. E. HEWITT OF GLENDALE LAUNDRY DETAILS QUALITIES THAT WIN

W. E. Hewitt, of the Glendale Laundry, has built up a successful business in that line in Glendale. In speaking of the elements that go to create success in business, Mr. Hewitt said: "In all business lines there are a number of elements that enter into and tend to make success in business. A prominent automobile man who has a business that has developed from a small beginning to a place in the front rank tells us that courtesy to one's customers is the biggest asset in business.

"Benjamin Franklin, an American representative of the successful business man, who ultimately stands before kings and speaks on an equality with the greatest in the world, advised humility as a most useful quality in business life. Along with the gentle spirit which Franklin advocated he took it for granted that one had the basis on which to build a business. We know nowadays that a business must be able to show goods, quality and prices under those of one's competitors or at least equal to them. In addition it is necessary to give good service; to show efficiency in every detail; to have a modern equipment and to acquire a reputation for honesty and a square deal.

"In building up a laundry business in Glendale I immediately appreciated the fact that we are so close to Los Angeles and have so many affiliations with that city that an extra effort was needed to be able to give the people better results for their money than the large concerns of the city. Many people are under the impression that they are likely to get more for their money by dealing with big firms.

"Such, however, is not the case. In Glendale, for instance, a laundry has the advantage of soft water, the natural water, the advantages of which this laundry was not long in discovering. We have the fine, clean atmosphere of Glendale, where there are no forests of factory stacks with the soot flying and dirt with which other cities have to contend.

"In addition to these advantages we have built up a home community business. Our employees are home people. Our work is picked up in Glendale. I am pleased to say that in the matter of dollars and cents we return two dollars for every one dollar received from Glendale. That is to say the money expended in Glendale by the business and by its employees is double the business we receive from this city. This is as it should be. We appreciate the advantages we have here and are convinced that mutual benefit is a good relationship to have between a community and a business.

"I know of no other methods by which business success can be secured except those I have detailed. Those who practice these methods, other things being equal, cannot fail to achieve success."

latest defeat for the Juniors was sustained when Fischer beat Brown by a 6-2, 6-2 score. The Freshmen were easily vanquished by the Sophomores in Wednesday's play, losing every match of the series. They were out-generated and out-played at every turn by their older competitors. The results follow: Beldin and Puffer beat Marsh and Balthis, 6-0, 6-0; Fansett and Brown beat Jenkins and Snow 6-4, 6-3; Beldin beat Snow 6-3, 5-7, 6-1; Puffer beat Balthis, 6-0, 6-0; Fansett beat Jenkins, 6-3, 6-2; Brown beat Marsh, 7-5, 6-4. The most interesting games are yet to come.

A business meeting of the Rotum was held Wednesday afternoon in Room 1. Herbert Scheuner, who presided, gave a short talk upon the necessity of having members and suggested means of inducing students to join this profitable organization. A motion was made and carried that each member be appointed a committee of one to secure a new member who will be a benefit to the society.

Plans for the future were discussed and a program committee appointed consisting of Marion Lehman, chairman, Chauncey Kolts and Mr. Root. The following committee on constitution and by-laws was also appointed: Harland Durand, chairman, James McClusky and Berna Martin.

Mr. Root called attention to the meeting of the Southwestern Debating league of which Glendale is a member, to be held in Los Angeles, Saturday. Mr. Scheuner was appointed as a delegate to represent Glendale. At this meeting the questions to be debated this year will be decided upon.

VALUE OF OUTDOOR EXERCISE

Not very long ago there was scheduled a road race for athletic runners from Los Angeles out into the country and back some twenty-five miles or so. To compete in that race a great array of white youths entered their names. They had been over the road many times and were familiar with its turns and twists and peculiarities which was a certain percentage of advantage in their favor. At the last moment four Hopi Indian boys who were attending a neighboring educational institution were induced to enter the race. They were taken over the course in an automobile once and with that preparation entered. When the race was finished it was found that the Hopis all came in at the head of the race and that the winner among them was nearly an hour ahead of any of the white competitors, many of whom were so exhausted that they could not finish the race.

Unquestionably the advantage the Hopis had over the white competitors was that not only had they developed their physical faculties in the open air but had also inherited well-developed lungs from their ancestors and had also developed and inherited a keen sense of locality. The white race can develop similar qualities by living in the open air. People who have lived in tents know how they feel almost stifled after they return to live in houses. The greatest stimulant and elixir of life is the open air. There should be no need to ask where it is to be obtained in Southern California.

Exercise in the open air means health and strength for every muscle and organ of the body. In similar fashion the breathing of impure air is destructive of vitality. It is pure air that helps the body. The reason the Greeks were the finest athletes the world has ever known was simply because they always practiced their exercises in the open air. They were great runners and wrestlers and all their games were held in the open air. The consequence of this was that the ancient Greeks developed the finest physical bodies that the world has ever seen. The Romans in like manner developed the physical body of their youth. The Roman boys were exercised on the open Campus Martius, with weapons much heavier than those they would have to use in war. The consequence was that when they had to do the actual fighting they found their lighter war weapons so easy to handle that as swordsmen they were unequalled. Few troops in the world ever stood before the charge of the Roman legions with the short stabbing sword in hand. Their discipline was such and their physical condition so well founded that no march was too long for them; no road too difficult to pass.

The Hopi Indian boys did not have a gymnasium in which to develop their bodies. Their great physical strength was gained in swimming, running or some other active outdoor exercise. The twentieth century white boy does not need a gymnasium for the development of his body. Those who live by the seaside can utilize the ocean and live a wonderful open air life that should leave its stamp on the white race of Southern California for many centuries to come.

VILLA'S LATEST EXPLOIT

It is very questionable if anyone of reliable character has seen Villa since the time of the raid on Columbus, at which time the resurrected Villa is quoted as saying that he was somewhere else. It is now doubted if Villa was near Chihuahua on the occasion of the last raid. Villa is so ubiquitous a personage that it is nothing to hear of his being one day in the vicinity of Tampico and the next at Chihuahua. One day he is marching on Hidalgo; the next he is in the environs of Santa Cruz.

Those who read between the lines say that these reports are carefully manufactured and circulated in order to influence the maintenance of an American force in Mexico in order to render more likely the outbreak of an attack on the American troops and the consequent declaration of war between the two countries. The joint commission on Mexican affairs has been making such satisfactory progress toward a settlement of the whole difficulty between the United States and the southern republic that the troops would probably be withdrawn before long. That does not suit the book of some of the would-be exploiters of Mexican resources and they have therefore by means of their command of a venal section of the public American press circulated stories that are alarming enough to keep the troops across the border. Meanwhile the same parties, it is stated on good authority, are encouraging bandit raids and stirred up the "Villa" raid on Chihuahua and the desperate fighting between Trevino's men and those of the bandit.

As a matter of fact no one has as yet seen Villa. There has been no authentic interview with him and as it is difficult to work with a mere automaton or to conjure very long with a name it will be seen that the newsmongers of Mexico, who are interested in having raids at this time, did not even venture to state that Villa entered Chihuahua, but stated that he remained outside on a distant hillside whence he could hear the noise of the attack on the city.

That is not much like Villa. The bandit if anything is as bold as any guerilla who has ever taken to the canyons in the history of Mexico. If Villa was within a mile and a half of Chihuahua and if he was able to sit on his horse one could almost venture to assert that he was in that city and in the thick of the fight. But he was not seen in the city and he was not seen after the fight except by some mythical individual.

Villa's followers, or the bandits who are operating in his name, put up a stiff fight yesterday and the Carranzistas did not get the better of it. That was near Casas Grandes, close to the American lines. There was no sign of Villa among his men. Clearly there is something very far wrong with the information that is daily received from Mexico, and it would appear that when the reckoning for the Columbus raid comes to be made Villa should have little trouble in proving an alibi. There are many both in Mexico and in the United States who still believe Villa is dead; but there is no proof of that event. The most plausible explanation of his silence

MONEY TO LOAN—$1000 to $5000 amounts on real estate. G. Irwin Royce, 612 W. Broadway. 3tf

Many people take no care of their money till they have come nearly to the end of it, and others do the same with their time.—Goethe.

—can you beat it?

HERE'S an exchange offering well worth the investigation of every Glendale property owner. This property is located at Huntington Beach—just within the city limits. There are 2 1/2 acres which can be divided into ten 50-ft. lots (worth, at least, $400 per lot). Modern 9-room house—two-story, shingle roof—newly painted; also barn and space for garage. In addition to 18 fruit trees there are a number of berry patches. Ground site of house is 24x42 ft. There are also corrals for chickens, cows, horses. Splendid water supply. Soil is black sandy loam mixed with some clay—ground is high and dry. House affords wonderful view of the ocean. Close to post-office and other conveniences. Only one block from car line. Distance from Los Angeles, 35 miles.

Call Dr. Royce at Glendale 20-J and arrange for a site-seeing trip to this Huntington Beach property. You'll be surprised at the "find". Ask the operator to connect you—right now!

and his disappearance is that he is waiting for the inevitable Carranza debacle and will make his appearance at the psychological moment.

Personals

H. C. Lynn of 1021 Melrose avenue North Glendale, has purchased a new Overland automobile.

Mrs. R. H. Beveridge of 1513 Hawthorne is entertaining her friend, Miss Carrie B. Northrop of Chicago this week.

News items for The Evening News may be left in a letter box at the Glendale Pharmacy, corner Glendale avenue and Broadway.

The many friends of Mrs. C. R. Norton of 373 West Third street, who has been in a critical condition, will be glad to know that she is recovering nicely.

Mrs. J. W. Thurber, popular club vocalist, 1476 West Second street, Glendale, is deeply interested in motion picture work at Hollywood at the present time.

Naudain Bros., of 314 South Brand Boulevard, began Thursday of this week to install the electrical wiring in Mattison B. Jones' new garage on Brand Boulevard near Third street.

Miss Phoebe Everett and Chester Stone of Altadena were visitors in the home of Miss Irene Jones, 1543 West Seventh street, Monday evening. Miss Everett formerly resided in Glendale.

Mrs. W. W. Beal of Independence, Mo., who is visiting in the home of her brother, J. K. Hill, 120 North Kenwood, this city, is greatly pleased with the California climate. She will remain until spring.

J. B. McBratney of the Irish Linen store, Glendale, will return the first of next week from a business trip to England and Ireland. He reports that he was able to make many very attractive "buys" in the old country.

L. W. Bosserman who with his family has been visiting for several months at La Porte, Ind., is expected to return to Glendale the latter part of this month. Mr. Bosserman was formerly engaged in business at La Porte.

The Brotherhood of the Methodist church will hold a meeting at the church this Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of electing officers. The present officers are Ed M. Lee, president and Lawrence Ellis, secretary.

Mrs. F. O. Moore of 1008 West Broadway who about six weeks ago fell and broke her left arm at the elbow now has some use of the injured arm. The break was a bad one and was skillfully cared for by Dr. T. C. Young.

Frank Booth, the Coffee King, who conducts a tea and coffee store at 1005 West Broadway, Glendale, came from London, England, eighteen years ago. Mr. Booth has been a resident of California for about twelve years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McIntyre, 315 Cedar street, are entertaining as house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goff of Minneapolis, Minn. Mr. Goff is a poet and literary man. He and Mrs. Goff have been in Glendale for a short time and will remain some weeks longer.

The absence of Roy Kent from the city of Glendale six days in the week is because the contracting firm of Charles Kent & Son of Glendale has the contract for building a large school house at Culver City, and while engaged at the work there Mr. Kent and family are residing in that city.

W. P. Starkey, an old soldier who resides in Glendale says he enlisted in the civil war in the Seventeenth Ohio regiment, and after leaving the war never met a member of his regiment until a few months ago he met his old comrade, U. H. Emick, who is commander of the Glendale-Tropico G. A. R. post.

E. P. Norton and family until recently of Los Angeles, who have been at the home of Mr. Norton's parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Norton left Glendale, Wednesday, for Bisbee, Ariz., where they expect to remain permanently. The trip was made by auto. Will Anderson of this city accompanying the Nortons.

J. W. Usilton and Mrs. Usilton, accompanied by Mr. C. W. Booth, Mrs. Booth and their daughter, left Thursday morning for Santa Barbara to attend the Elks' convention there. They are making the journey by auto and will return Sunday night. Mr. Usilton says that with the exception of one week this is the only vacation he has had in more than ten years.

Those of the citizens of Glendale who do not care to subscribe for The Evening News and prefer a weekly paper should subscribe for The Tri-City Progress which is the weekly edition of The Evening News. The subscription price is $1.50 per year or $1.00 strictly in advance. It is an eight-page paper, brim full of local news. Ask for a sample copy.

The Evening News management has today placed at the head of the personal news department a gentleman of many years experience as a reporter of local happenings. Hereafter your attention is called to the personal and local news mentions on page three of every issue of The News. Readers of The Evening News are kindly requested to contribute to this department.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Chappell, 1437 Myrtle street, are dinner guests Thursday at the home of Miss Maud Livingstone of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Bullinger, formerly resident at 244 Central avenue, and their little son, have moved into their new house, recently completed at 233 Central.

That a large string of Automobiles loaded with strangers you saw driving through the streets of Glendale early this afternoon meant that automobile owners had kindly consented to take the Good Templar visitors on a tour of beautiful Glendale.

A small letter box has been placed in the Munson Drug Store in which to deposit manuscript containing news for The Evening News. This is done for the accommodation of contributors to The Evening News who do not care to take the trouble to deliver letters at The Evening News office.

Emil O. Kieffer who is employed by the Pulliam Undertaking company, left Thursday morning with others for Santa Barbara, where he will attend the annual state convention of Elks. The Glendale Elks' drill team will compete in the drill contest at this convention. Mr. Kieffer is a member of the team.

The Glendale Evening News job department has just completed printing the annual year book for the Tuesday Afternoon Club. The book comprised 52 pages and the cover. The chairman of program committee, Mrs. C. E. Harlan has informed us that the members who have received the books are greatly pleased with them.

When it comes to keeping an alley neat and clean the residents on Louise and Kenwood streets between First and Second streets know how to do that. About two years ago the property owners adjoining this alley subscribed money for the paving of the roadway and from that time to this day it has been the best kept alley in Glendale.

Miss Bernice Wakefield of Peoria, Ill., arrived in Glendale last week to pay an indefinite visit to her sister, Mrs. Brahm Van Den Berg, of 456 West Fifth street. Miss Wakefield expects to have a most enjoyable time this winter and her sister is planning for her entertainment. Mr. Brahm Van Den Berg, the noted Belgian piano virtuoso, is making arrangements for a recital to be held at a date in the near future at Trinity auditorium.

Dr. I. H. Durfee, 508 South Brand Boulevard, who was chairman at the great Brotherhood gathering in the Masonic Temple Tuesday, says that the Brotherhood feels that it owes a considerable debt to Miss Marie Brehm of Chicago, who made such a telling speech on "California Dry." He counts on Miss Brehm's influence in this campaign as one of the strong assets the "drys" have and says that every woman's club in the district should express its appreciation of her work.

Elder E. E. Andross, of 111 Isabel street, president of the Pacific Union Conference of the Seventh Day Adventists, left early this week for Washington, D. C., where he will attend the Autumn Council of the General Conference Committee and the North American Division Conference Committee, of the Adventists. These will be held October 10 to 24. Recently Elder Andross, accompanied by Mrs. Andross, made a trip to Milton, Ore. She will remain there visiting relatives while her husband is in the east.

Ezra F. Parker, furniture dealer on Brand Boulevard, is a genuine booster for Glendale. He recommends that certain days be set aside every year for the entertainment of outside people. Designate one day as bankers' day and at that time invite the cashiers and bank clerks out from the city to spend a Saturday afternoon or a holiday with us. Show them the city, feed them well and let them know that Glendale is a good place in which to live. On another day invite the grocery people, and on still another day invite professional men.

Mrs. H. C. Ackley, Miss Olive Williams, Mrs. Nanno Woods, Professor Houdyshel and Freeman Kelley attended the monthly meeting of the Los Angeles county horticultural society held Wednesday evening at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. Interesting talks were given on bulb culture by H. Richards and on herbaceous plants by A. Shaw. A miniature flower show attracted much attention, the flowers after the meeting being presented to the ladies present. The Glendale ladies were so fortunate as to be given several blooms of the wonderful new Los Angeles rose, which specimens will be on exhibit tonight at the free Glendale Garden society meeting at the High school auditorium.

REMEMBER TONIGHT

Tonight at the High school auditorium, the bird lady, Mrs. Harriet William Myers will give a stereopticon talk on "Birds of My Garden." This lecture marks the opening season of the Glendale Garden society, an organization which presents all its programs free to the public. Its annual dues are but 25 cents a year. It meets twice a month, and is offering for the coming year many silver cups in floral contests. Its slogans are "For Home and Civic Beauty," and "Every Member a Live Wire." The society is particularly fortunate in securing for this evening a woman richly endowed with a love of nature with a great fund of information and with a sympathetic and humorous delivery. Mrs. Myers is secretary of the California Audubon society and has within the past few days been honored by an appointment as chairman of the Federated State societies.

Prizes won by members of the Bird and Flower club during the summer session will be awarded, children aged from six to sixteen receiving awards for attendance, essay writing, etc. Specimens of the beautiful new rose, the Los Angeles, created by Messrs. Howard & Smith, will be on exhibition tonight. Remember, this attractive lecture is open to all. Everybody most cordially welcomed. Come early as meeting begins at 8 o'clock sharp.

NANNO WOODS, President.

MORRIS E. CARUTHERS,

Secretary.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY

What proved to be a most pleasant and unexpected event occurred when some friends of Mrs. P. Van Sant surprised her by their arrival at her home, 1526 Patterson avenue at noon Wednesday, laden with goodies. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Van Sant. Those present were Mrs. A. H. Wightman, Mrs. I. Gould, Mrs. E. F. McKee, Mrs. Rebecca McKee, Mrs. G. Phillips, Mrs. David Bennett, Mrs. Clifford Clannin and Miss Eva Daniels. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with music and cards.

Doctors and Dentists Only—read this:

WHEN you know that at the Glendale Sanitarium there is an X-ray Department equipped for fluoroscopic and radiographic work of every description.—when you fully appreciate the value of the X-ray not alone as an aid in diagnosis, but as an acknowledged therapeutic agent which adapts itself to a host of morbid conditions.

—when you know that, in addition to a thoroughly modern X-ray equipment, we have unusual facilities for the administration of Diathermy and Electrotherapy—such as that afforded by the use of the High Frequency or Violet Rays, the Solar Arc Lamp and the Sinusoidal and Galvanic currents.

—and, finally, when you know that this Department is under the direct, personal supervision of a technician whose work has attracted no little comment and commendation—

Surely you cannot help but recognize its value to you in your daily practice!

Suppose you ask the operator for Glendale 2 or Home 1213 and talk with our Roentgenologist. We'll appreciate this courtesy and shall be only too glad to give you any detailed information you wish.

CHAPTER B. A., P. E. O.

The first regular business meeting of Chapter B. A., of P. E. O. will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Eva J. Cunningham, 1414 Salem street, Friday morning October 6, at 10 o'clock. It is hoped that all members will be present.

DR. HALL of Los Angeles will give a health lecture to ladies at I. O. O. F. hall, Glendale, Friday, Oct 6, at 2 p. m., free.

BIRDHOUSES TONIGHT

Anybody interested in the monster birdhouse contest just launched by the Glendale Garden society should attend the public meeting tonight at the High school auditorium, when details of the contest will be announced and any questions will be answered. A talk on "Birds of My Garden" will be given, illustrated by colored slides. The meeting is free—everybody given the glad hand. Tonight, 8 o'clock sharp.

4 New Refinements

Arrow points to new and improved windshield. Upper half overlaps lower half. Absolutely rain-tight.

Wider and longer seats and deeper cushions, as indicated by arrow.

Instrument board, showing gasoline gauge, electric dashlight, speedometer, electric starting and lighting plugs and ammeter.

Arrow shows old and new spring construction. New springs much longer and more flexible.

MAXWELL Motor Cars are now equipped with a new and improved windshield, still longer and more flexible springs, wider seats, deeper and softer cushions, dashlight, gasoline gauge, and other equally important refinements.

To the generous value heretofore present in the Maxwell product, these extra improvements have now been added.

This is in line with the Maxwell policy—not to change the Maxwell in any essential detail, but to continue improving it so that it will always be a standard, recognized product, constantly abreast of the best practices of the industry.

Notwithstanding the superlative and sometimes confusing claims that are made in behalf of various automobiles, we restate our sincere conviction that Maxwell Motor Cars offer more real value per dollar than any other car in the world.

This too, is the belief of the thousands and thousands of Maxwell owners. And these beliefs are supported by actual and tangible facts. We actually know that within the entire history of the automobile business, no motor car—in any class or at any price—has equalled the Maxwell in honest dollar-for-dollar value.

And if you will examine a Maxwell, ride in it, compare it with other cars, consider its splendid record, reputation and past performances, you too, will know it.

Call or phone for a demonstration.

Who wants a beautiful suburban home in the foothills? Healthiest location in Southern California. If suffering with asthma, hay fever or lung trouble, you get immediate relief and rapid recovery.

The beauty is unexcelled; on perfect boulevard 15 minutes to Glendale, 15 minutes to Pasadena, 30 minutes to Los Angeles, 10-minute walk to street car, stage to Los Angeles and Glendale passes door seven times daily. Here you can enjoy the quietude of a country home, and yet be able to attend to business in the city.

THE GROUNDS

consist of nearly one and one half acres, fronting south, 118 feet frontage; a broad beautiful lawn thickly dotted with beautiful shrubbery; a rose garden with nearly 100 rare and beautiful roses in full bloom. Magnolia trees across the entire front yard. Grounds enclosed with a cobbles stone fence. Drive leading from boulevard to a garage 16x20 built to match house. Nineteen different kinds of fruit all in full bearing.

THE HOUSE

was built for a home, is only two years old. Owner vacated on account of going into business in Long Beach. Was never occupied by any one but owners, a young married couple. There are eight rooms, a large commodious living room with rock faced brick fireplace, a beautiful dining room with built-in buffet; most complete kitchen to be found in any house with wood stone sink, walls and wood work white enameled; leading from the kitchen is a beautiful breakfast room on east of house. Three nice bedrooms each having a large closet. Bath room all done in white enamel, with tub, lavatory and toilet. A large sunroom facing south all glassed in. Cement porch 10x50 ft., with steps leading down in front and side; cemented cellar with furnace piped to all rooms. Owner lived in house two winters and warmed house by fireplace alone.

WORDS

cannot begin to do justice to this home and location. You cannot duplicate it in Los Angeles Co. It would cost nearly one third more to build the house now than two years ago. The owner desires an immediate sale and will take a small payment down and give three or five years time on balance.

Location one mile due east of Montrose on Foot-hill Blvd. When you come to two large oak trees in center of boulevard you are at the right place.

BENEFIT READING CIRCLE

The time of the regular meeting of the Mutual Benefit Reading circle which met as always at the Kenneth Road home of Mrs. Charles H. Toll, was devoted to reading and discussing two very interesting chapters of the book, "The Dawn of Character," which is now engaging the attention of the circle. These chapters were, "Childish Curiosity" and "The Dawn of Religion." The former discussed the propriety of answering the numerous questions that arise in every normal child's mind relative to the natural phenomena of birth and death, and some of the circumstances of life, such as illness and crime. The extent to which such questions should be answered was very fully treated with. While not all the members can be expected to agree with the views advanced by Mrs. Mumford, the author of the book, the discussion gives all an opportunity to express opinions, and leads each one to discover the truth or fallacy of her belief.

Twenty-eight women were present, which number included, besides the regular members, two new members, Mrs. J. H. Southard and Mrs. George F. Dewey; also three visitors, Mrs. Burnham Neff of Phoenix, Ariz., Mrs. Arthur P. Knight and Miss Ada E. Gies.

The reading of "The Dawn of Character" will probably consume two more meetings, as copious reviews will be given. On October 25 the circle will probably begin the new book of the series, "Studies in Child Development," by Julia Clark Hallam. This deals with the natural development of the child from infancy to young manhood and womanhood, and cannot fail to interest the mothers of children of all ages. It is the earnest desire of the members of the circle that all mothers contemplating affiliation with the circle should begin to attend at the time the new book is begun, in order that they shall not miss any of the readings.

GLENDALE FOOTHILLS

Dr. J. E. Eckles of North Central avenue met with what might have been a serious accident Sunday afternoon when returning from Los Angeles, in his new Oakland Six. As he reached Tropic and Central another automobile driving south struck the doctor's machine driving it against the sidewalk and completely smashing one of the front wheels and damaging the rear wheel and inflicting other damages. Fortunately no one was hurt.

Mrs. E. J. Stanton of Arden avenue who has been quite ill during the past week is now getting better.

The Rev. Julius Soper, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church who has been taking a week's vacation at Fairmount hotel, La Crescenta returned home Thursday.

Miss Maud Soper, 1305 North Maryland avenue, who recently sprained her ankle, badly dislocating one of the bones of her foot also, is now getting well. She is able occasionally to discard the crutches with which she aided herself to walk.

Miss Carrie Henke of Melrose avenue, sister of Mrs. A. G. Rees of San Rafael avenue, is expected home Friday. She has been visiting friends in Colorado.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Mark's Episcopal church will meet with Mrs. Phillips, 710 West Fifth street at 2:30 Friday afternoon. A large attendance is desired to arrange for the Christmas cards.

WILL HOLD BRIEF SESSION

It has been reported that the members of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale will meet in a short business session this evening and adjourn until a future date. An important meeting in Los Angeles is the cause of the brevity of the meeting.

Franklin Wilson and family who formerly resided on Central avenue, Glendale, but now reside in Los Angeles, were transacting business in this city Wednesday.

TUJUNGA

The services at Bolton hall last Sunday evening were conducted under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor society. Ralph Myron of Los Angeles, a member of the Flying Squadron of the Better Citizen committee of the county Christian Endeavor, was present and gave a short address on the subject of "California Dry." There was probably no one present in the audience who was not in sympathy with the speaker. After Mr. Myron had departed the president, J. H. Shiras, assumed charge of the program and a song service followed by quotations of favorite Bible verses, closed the services.

Miss Louise McClement had as her guest over the week end, Miss Murray of Los Angeles, whose family will in all likelihood occupy the cottage of Miss Swing on Los Angeles street for several months.

Miss Parsons who is in training as a nurse at the Pomona Valley hospital was the guest Friday and Saturday of the Misses Helen and Alice Green of Pine street.

Mr. and Mrs. Beatty, relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heffleman of Old Tujunga Homestead are guests of the Hefflemans. They came by auto all the way from Philadelphia, Pa., stopping by the way to visit with relatives and friends. They will be here for some time.

Miss Fenn of New York City and Miss Parsons of Washington, D. C., friends of Miss Julia Culver are at present occupying the Morgan cottage on Los Robles avenue. Miss Parsons expects to be here for a month but Miss Fenn will probably remain for a much longer period.

Annual Meeting of Christian Federation

On Wednesday evening of this week occurred, instead of the usual conference meeting, the annual business meeting of the Christian Federation. Reports from the different committees were heard and officers for the ensuing year were elected. A list of which will be published in all probability next week.

Miss Gladys Thayer was a recent guest at the home of her parents of Monte Vista boulevard and Los Angeles street.

Miss Marie Van Battum was at the home of her parents during the past week enjoying a visit and a rest from her duties at the Burbank hospital.

Miss Florence Gilmore was a visitor to Los Angeles last Friday.

Word comes from Miss Marston, who is at the bedside of her husband that Mr. Marston has been removed to the Clara Barton hospital where every care is given him and that his present condition seems to warrant hopes for his recovery.

Last Monday night the Christian Endeavor society held their monthly business meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shiras of El Centro avenue. After the disposal of business affairs a social hour was spent by the guests and refreshments were served.

Miss Hannah L. McKee departed last Wednesday for Pasadena where she will spend some time with her friends the Treat family.

Mrs. Heald was a business visitor to Los Angeles last Friday where she spent the day.

Birthday Party

About 35 young people of the valley gathered at the Kirschman home last Saturday night to help Mr. Darwin Kirschman celebrate his birthday anniversary. Cards, games and other social diversions occupied the hours. Refreshments were served by the hosts. A most enjoyable evening is reported.

The Ladies' Aid held their regular monthly meeting last Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Atkinson and Miss Richardson instead of at Miss Gilbert's as had been previously announced. An interesting discussion on the life of Jezebel was led by Mrs. Malona. After the usual program a social hour followed and light refreshments were served.

The Friday Morning Round Table held their weekly meeting last week at the usual time and place. The members have begun the reading and discussion of "Christianity and the Social Crisis," by Walter Rauschenbusch, professor of church history in the Theological seminary at Rochester, N. Y., very recently. Before taking up this work the Round Table had a series of miscellaneous readings. One from the Crown of Wild Olives, a lecture given before the Working Men's Institute of Camberwell, by Ruskin. Two mornings were devoted to the study of "Happiness" by Carl Hiltz, translated by Peabody. The meeting this week is in the nature of a social affair at the home of Mrs. Leo Lang.

Miss Bertha Fehr returned home last Friday after a most delightful week spent as the guest of friends at Venice.

The Booster's club held its first meeting of the month at 8 o'clock Saturday evening in the north room of the school. Those interested are given a cordial invitation to be present.

Town Meeting

A letter from Charles M. Frey, editor of Hotel Alexandria Topics expressing his regrets at not being able to be present to deliver an address scheduled for last Tuesday night was read. Mr. Frey thinks he will surely be present next Tuesday night. Mr. Ashby spoke of the new hour for the closing of the mail, that everyone might know about the change. The mail arrives and leaves at least one hour earlier than formerly. Have your mail posted at least by 10 o'clock to avoid disappointment.

Announcement was made that the register for voters will be closed at midnight Saturday night, October 7, after which hour it will be too late to register for the November election. Discussions were had on the subjects of single tax; wet and dry proposition; the bond issue for the highway. Unless the latter carries there will be no funds to continue the highway.

The subject of floods control bond to be used only for the Los Angeles river improvement was up also for discussion. Our people believe the improvement should begin at the source of the floods in the mountains and valleys before anything is done below. If the work is reversed it is simply a waste of funds. The boundary of the voting precinct was another subject that was given attention. Fred M. Ashby and P. J. Blake were asked to look up the matter and report, the exact boundaries of our precinct.

Mrs. Will Trout returned home from Hemet last week after an absence covering a number of weeks. She had a pleasant visit with friends and also helped to gather the peach crop which was not so large as usual.

Mr. McKinney, an old friend and neighbor of Mr. and Mrs. Ensign Woodruff is a guest at the Woodruff home on El Centro avenue for a few days this week. He resides at Long Beach.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNER-SHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912.

Of The Glendale Evening News, published daily, except Sunday, at Glendale (Los Angeles Postoffice) for 6 months ending October 1, 1916. State of California, County of Los Angeles—ss.

Before me, a notary public, in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared A. T. Cowan, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the owner of the Glendale Evening News, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily paper, the circulation) etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are: Publisher, A. T. Cowan, Glendale, Cal.

Editor, A. T. Cowan, Glendale, Cal. Managing Editor, A. T. Cowan, Glendale, Cal.

Business Manager, A. T. Cowan, Glendale, Cal.

2. That the owners are: A. T. Cowan, Glendale, Cal.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are:

Mergenthaler Linotype Co., Brooklyn, N. Y., on linotype machine only.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain
